

DEC 15 1965

Dutch Give Up Hunt For Missing Doctor

Dutch police have called off the search for Prof. Richard Folis of Washington, D. C., who disappeared in Amsterdam on Dec. 5. A police spokesman said they assume the 46-year-old Folis, a top authority on nutritional pathology, met with an accident. His disappearance caused a commotion in Europe because of rumors speculating that he was involved in intelligence work.

STATINTL